BIOGRAPHY OF DONALD L. SWAIM

Donald L. Swaim was born in Wichita, Kansas in 1936. He graduated from Ohio University in 1959 with a BFA degree. He then went on to work with WCBS as a writer, editor, reporter, anchor, and producer for 30 years. In addition to his journalism career, Swaim is a fiction writer.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS OF THE COLLECTION

The Donald L. Swaim Collection consists primarily of a variety of audio tapes. Featured in this collection is the original radio broadcast of "Book Beat", a series Swaim produced for 12 years. Many outstanding writers were interviewed, a few of which were Dick Francis, Paul Theroux, Richard Nixon, and Gloria Steinem.

Box 1 contains 10-inch reel-to-reel master tapes of the radio broadcast series "Book Beat" (tapes #1-20). Box 2 Contains 10-inch reel-to-reel master tapes of the CBS Radio broadcast "Book Beat" (tapes #26-47). Box 3 contains 10-inch reel-to-reel master tapes of the CBS Radio broadcast Book Beat (tapes #48-69). It also contains the master reel of the broadcast "Mr. Shirer Gives a Talk." Box 4 contains uncut author interviews on cassette (numbers 1-260). Box 5 contains uncut author interviews on cassette (numbers 261-344), CBS Radio Broadcast "Book Beat" on cassette (numbers 1-50), highlights on 1986 PEN International Conference (cassette #'s 1-12), American Book Award speeches on cassette, cassette version of the 1984 broadcast "Mr. Shirer Gives a Talk", and the cassette of a 10-part series, "Looking for the Great American Novel".
