BIOGRAPHY OF ALLAN CANNON

Allan Cannon is the author of this collection. The boy was ten years old when he began the first scrapbook on January 1st, 1942. He lived in Crooksville, Ohio.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS OF THE COLLECTION

The Collection covers the years 1941 – 1945. The majority of the material are newspaper clippings related to WWII events, like Columbus Star (January 17, 1942), one issue of the Look magazine (October 29, 1946 – tenth anniversary issue and article from Life magazine (December 14, 1942). This collection is represented by three scrapbooks divided by topics. First one is connected with the Pearl Harbor. The second one is connected with the overview of WWII events beginning from 1941 on the eve of 1942. The third one is connected with the final stage of WWII – Victory over Nazi Germany (8 May, 1945). It begins with materials on the Allies landing in Normandy, June 6th, 1944 and liberation of Europe from Nazis, and ends with information on Nuremberg process.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE COLLECTION

The Collection covers the years 1941 - 1945. The majority of the materials are newspaper and magazine clippings related to major WWII events.

This collection is represented by three scrapbooks divided by topics.

The first one is connected with the Pearl Harbor. The second one is connected with the overview of WWII events beginning from 1941 on the eve of 1942. The third one is connected with the final stage of WWII - Victory over Nazi Germany (8 May, 1945). It begins with materials on Allies landing in Normandy, June 6th, 1944 and liberation of Europe from Nazis, and ends with information on Nuremberg process.

It is evident that the author planned to find materials for the forth one (Volume II) and even gave a title to it: US vs Japan), but was unable to finish it.

Note to Researchers: To request materials, please note both the location and box numbers shown below.
