BACKGROUND OF AMOS & DAVIS IRON CO.

Amos & Davis Iron Co. was an iron producing company operating in Ironton (Lawrence county) at the end of 1890s. The company was managed by William C. Amos - one of Ironton's leading citizens and one of the pioneer iron men of the region. The last furnace work in which he was engaged for the Amos and Davis Iron Company was the management of Center Furnace.

Ironton Register, August 17, 1899 - CENTER FURNACE:

"After a long period of silence this furnace is to resume blast, and preparations have been already begun. Mrs. Lindsey Kelly has leased the property to the Amos & Davis Iron Co composed of W. C. Amos, H. L. Amos, L. D. Davis, Dr. O. Ellison, Dr. H. B. Justice and Wm. Laird, which is incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000. Of this concern H. L. Amos will be President and Superintendent and L. D. Davis, Secretary and Treasurer. The lease is for one year with the privilege of five, and the rental is one ton of pig iron for every 15 tons produced."
